Established in 1837, Cheyney University of Pennsylvania cherishes its legacy as America’s Oldest Historically Black Institution of Higher Education. Our mission is to prepare confident, competent, reflective, visionary leaders and responsible citizens. We uphold our tradition of academic excellence as we maintain our historical commitment to opportunity and access for students of diverse backgrounds. Cheyney University provides a nurturing, intellectually challenging, and socially enriching environment.
The Keystone Honors Academy offers unprecedented access to an interdisciplinary experience in a supportive environment that will challenge you, motivate you and cultivate academic leadership. A full complement of enrichment activities and programs, prestigious internships, a highly-qualified faculty, advanced curricula, and the latest technologies shape a community where intellectually curious students can grow, thrive and achieve.

Academic scholarships and generous financial assistance open up an unlimited world of possibilities for your future.
Scholarships

If you qualify for the Keystone Honors Academy, you may qualify for one of the most comprehensive scholarship programs available. Students who are high academic achievers may qualify for the Keystone Scholarship including:

- Full tuition
- Room and board
- University fees
- A laptop computer and other benefits

Many other scholarship programs are available, including the Humphreys Scholarship. And as a Cheyney graduate, you are also eligible for Bond–Hill Scholarship funds for graduate studies in medicine, law and dentistry.

Academic Excellence

It’s not for everyone. But if you thrive on intellectual challenges . . . if you are motivated by academic exploration . . . if scholarly depth is as important to you as scholarly breadth, the Keystone Honors Academy offers an exceptional educational experience.

- Scholarly environment
- Honors coursework
- Honors Council
- Interdisciplinary and cross-curricular learning
- Study abroad opportunities

No matter what your educational goals or interests, you’ll find a scope of resources to spark your curiosity and satisfy your need for discovery. The Keystone Honors Academy’s small classes and attentive faculty combine to create a stimulating environment where you can explore intellectual issues.
Learning doesn’t stop when class lets out. It can happen during a late-night pizza break, during a poetry reading, musical performance in the lounge or one of the lively debates that are the hallmark of the Keystone Living Learning Center.

Living among other students who share a passion for intellectual discourse is an enriching and stimulating enhancement to a vibrant college experience.

The Keystone Living Learning Center provides an exclusive living environment where social activities and informal programs create opportunities for students, staff and faculty to meet and exchange ideas.

Emerging leaders can learn what it takes to step up and make a difference . . . and how to hone the skills that will propel you towards success. Requisite and optional leadership training programs offer opportunities and training that will prepare you to take charge . . . no matter where your career leads you.
Your intellectual curiosity reaches beyond the pages of a book. Enrichment programs inspire you with debates, conversations and lively Q-and-A’s with international experts.

Cultural Enrichment

Cheyney University’s talented faculty aren’t the only experts on campus with whom you can engage in educational pursuits. The Keystone Honors Academy provides you with access to some of the world’s foremost experts in dozens of fields. Meet and chat with internationally renowned scholars who participate in the Distinguished Lecturers Series.

The Scholar-in-Residence Program invites you to study with noted scholars from around the globe whose presence enriches the Cheyney academic community.
