

THE LINDBACK DISTINGUISHED TEACHING AWARD

As part of its Commencement ceremonies in May, Cheyney University presents the Lindback Distinguished Teaching Award to a faculty member for demonstrated excellence in teaching students.

A Committee will recommend candidates for this year's award. The committee will submit the names to the President who, under the terms of the award, makes the final selection.

Cheyney University students and faculty are encouraged to submit nominations to the Office of the Provost in Wade Wilson Administration Building, Room 3XX by Thursday, April 29, 2010. Nominations also can be submitted electronically to the Office of the Provost at: Provost@Cheyney.edu.

Any Cheyney student and/or faculty may nominate one or more faculty members for the award. The faculty member(s) nominated must be Permanent full-time and half-time faculty members who have been at Cheyney University for at least three years. Please note that previous recipients of the Lindback Distinguished Teaching Award are not eligible to receive another Award.

Distinguished Teaching Criteria:

When nominating a faculty member for The Lindback Distinguished Teaching Award, you should consider how the faculty member:

- Instills in students a desire for intellectual curiosity and achievement;
- Demonstrates currency in his or her field/discipline;
- Demonstrates an understanding of individual needs of students, and encourages excellence while fostering self-esteem;
- Presents classroom information in a unique or creative manner;
- Provides effective support as an advisor or mentor;
- Serves as an effective mentor for their students.
