Migration of the Muse

OPENING RECEPTION
April 14, 2011 4:00 PM - 6:00 PM
Location: Cheyney University, Biddle Hall Art Gallery

Artists such as Henry Ossawa Tanner, Josephine Baker, and many others formed a multicultural society in Paris, finding freedom of expression and freedom from the constraints of American society. This exhibition takes its inspiration from these artists and their works and celebrates the exuberant nexus of culture that Paris became for them. Artworks by Professor Marietta Dantonio-Fryer, Professor Helena Domenic and Professor Maya Winters will be on display.
