

Application for the Fattah Conference on Higher Education

The Fattah Conference on Higher Education (February 26, 27 & 28) is designed to increase enrollment of minority students in graduate and professional schools. This is a three day conference consisting of presentations from motivational speakers, workshops and symposia focused on providing pertinent information about the graduate school admissions process. Only students in good standing (academic and judicial) with the institution will be considered. Please see the website for more information:

www.fattahconference.com

Applications are due December 10 by 5:00 PM

Please bring applications to Emlen Hall, Keystone Honors Academy Office!

Name: _____

Email (that you check regularly) and Phone Number: _____

Cohort (circle one): Freshman Sophomore Junior Senior

Major: _____

GPA: _____

Please list any organizations or volunteer services you participate in:

Goals for graduate school or professional attainment:

Please write a short paragraph below that outlines why you would be a good candidate for the Fattah Conference on Higher Education.